Narrative:

Calling party reports that a vehicle may have hit the side of the above business, denting the downspout from the gutter, before leaving the scene. Calling party provided a license plate number of the involved vehicle and described the operator as a young white female with dark hair. 226 dispatched to speak with calling party and check for damage.

Narrative:

Attached operator is only a possible suspect, she was listed as operating the same vehicle in a previous call.

Narrative:

Ofc. Sullivan spoke with the postmaster on scene who reported that both downspouts on the building have prior existing damage and that he does not wish to pursue the matter any further. Cruiser clear.

Narrative:

Above attached operator came in at this time to report that she had in fact backed her vehicle up and hit the building, but not the downspout. She stated she got out and checked for damage and found none. That is when a man started yelling at her and she then left. She realizes now she should have gone inside but at the time did not see any damage and was scared when the male started yelling at her. She was told that the postmaster did not wish to pursue the matter and that her coming into the station would be logged.
