RP wanted to be taken to her house to take a shower right then. Due to the late hour an agreement was made between RP and her sister that she would be brought home on Friday so that she could shower in her own home. RP stated she was unable to care for herself and said she was being well cared for by her sister, but just liked taking showers in her own home. RP sister reported that the RP's memory is starting to diminished and is unable to care for herself. RP sister said she has taken on the responsibility of caring for her sister until a bed becomes available at LIFE CARE. Wbfd evaluated RP, RP stated she was fine and did not feel the need to get to the hospital. Peace restored.
