New business owner in station to report suspicious activity at his shop. At approximately 6pm today, while a young female employee was working alone, a black male, young 20's, came in without any clothes to be cleaned. He asked numerous questions, including questions about a panic button, and appeared to be scoping out the racks by the windows. Video is unclear and a good face shot is not shown. It is unclear if he was "hitting" on this young female, or "casing" the business. He stayed for about 20 minutes and stated he would be back again on Friday. The owner was instructed to call us if he is seen on property again and told to tell female employee to do same. This call number was given to him to refer to if he calls.
