

Sergeant Kenneth Bryant

I grew up and went to school at West Bridgewater High School. I graduated with a Bachelor's Degree from Western New England College. I started with the West Bridgewater Police Department in 1988. I became a detective in the 1990s. I was then promoted to Sergeant in 2003.

Hobbies: I enjoy time off with my family, camping, and playing golf.

Hardest part of the job: Keeping up with the pace of technology and social media.

Best part of the job: Being able to interact and get to know the citizens of this great community.
