Narrative: Multiple 911 callers reporting a party refusing to leave.

Narrative: Party has been trespassed from location. Peace restored.

Narrative: Involved party contacted the station regarding the trespass. He was upset because he believes he was targeted and doesn't believe they can legally trespass him. Party was advised of the trespass laws and advised to contact business management in the morning if he has concerns about the staff or trespass but party was reminded that he was not welcome on the property.

Narrative: Party called back again wishing to discuss the same items already explained to him multiple times. He said that he was belittled by the staff and upset. He was advised this was not a crime and he should contact management in the morning to discuss his concerns.
